matthew gorkos begins the storied church with this compelling statement i believe in the church in the power of faithful people serving a good and gracious god and i believe in the power of a good story moreover i believe as this book will argue that church and story harnessed together could be an even more powerful force for goodness in our world neuroscientists anthropologists archeologists and psychologists all agree story is how our brains and our communities make sense of things storytelling helps us cope with change and loss storytelling helps us transmit lessons and life skills to the next generation as human beings it seems we can t do without story this book indeed this whole idea of story centered church renewal was born of a suspicion that the restorative transformative life giving function that stories have for us as individuals may serve communities of faithful people as well if stories help us survive as human creatures why can t they help churches survive the problem that story centered renewal seeks to remedy has only become more prevalent and urgent in the age of covid 19 our churches need hope now more than ever writing from a pastor s perspective gorkos hopes to encourage and empower other pastors and lay leaders with both the hope and the tools they need to effect revitalizing change in their faith communities each chapter includes questions for reflection to help readers listen to and tell the stories that will lead to renewal and transformation transmedia storytelling is defined as a process where integral elements of fiction get dispersed systematically across multiple delivery channels to create a unified and coordinated entertainment experience this process and its narrative models have had an increasing influence on the academic world in addressing both theoretical and practical dimensions of transmedia storytelling the handbook of research on transmedia storytelling and narrative strategies is a critical scholarly resource that explores the connections between consumers of media content and information parts that come from multimedia platforms as well as the concepts of narration and narrative styles featuring coverage on a wide range of topics such as augmented reality digital society and marketing strategies this book explores narration as a method of relating to consumers this book is ideal for advertising professionals creative directors academicians scriptwriters researchers and upper level graduate students seeking current research on narrative marketing strategies the first half of religion and the natural sciences is an introduction to the discussion of science and religion here the reader learns why there is any debate at all and what resources exist for responding to it the second half deals with specific issues that arise in the individual sciences from astronomy and physics to biology and ecology any project hoping to connect science and religion must supply the categories of connection which are found primarily although not exclusively in philosophy the simplicity of the arrangement and the nature of the selections are intended to make religion and the natural sciences available to as wide an audience as possible including students from the sciences and technology the professions the humanities and liberal studies and theology story is the heart of language story moves us to love and hate and can motivate us to change the whole course of our lives story can lift us beyond our individual borders to imagine the realities of other people times and places storytelling both oral tradition and written word is the foundation of being human in this powerful book christina baldwin one of the visionaries who started the personal writing movement explores the vital necessity of re creating a sacred common ground for each other s stories each chapter in storycatcher is carried by a fascinating narrative about people family or community intertwined with practical instruction about the nature of story how it works and how we can practice it in our lives whether exploring the personal stories revealed in our private journals the stories of family legacy the underlying stories that drive our organizations or the stories that define our personal identity christina s book encourages us all to become storycatchers and shows us how new stories lay the framework for a new world publisher
